

AFTER A REPORT IS MADE: UNDERSTANDING THE INVESTIGATIVE PROCESS FROM A VICTIM'S PERSPECTIVE

A WEBINAR FOR SURVIVORS AND THOSE WHO CARE FOR THEM

Monday, March 23 6:30 – 8 p.m. CST

When a report is made, the investigation process is designed to move forward with care, respect and attention to the individual who reported. Trained investigators follow established practices intended to prioritize well-being, privacy and fairness, while working within legal guidelines. The process may look different for each person and can take time, involving various steps or professionals along the way. Throughout, the goal is to handle the report thoughtfully and with sensitivity, while ensuring the individual's voice is treated with seriousness, care and respect.

Eric Skog retired from the St. Paul Police Department (SPPD) in St. Paul, MN after a twenty-seven-year career. During his time as an officer with SPPD he worked patrol, Mounted Unit, and the Motors Unit. After being promoted to Sergeant in 2012 he worked in the Sexual Violence Unit as an investigator for over three years. He then transferred to the Homicide/Robbery Unit where he spent over seven years as an investigator. In 2022, he was promoted to Commander and supervised the Family Violence unit before transferring to supervise the Sexual Violence Unit. Eric is currently the Deputy Director of Ministerial Standards and Safe Environment at the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis. Eric is a United States Marine Corps' veteran where he served as a Cryptologic Linguist – Korean in the Signals Intelligence/Ground Electronic Warfare field. He enjoys traveling, the outdoors and spending time with family, especially his grandchildren.
